Vol. 151

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 2005

No. 23

Senate

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore (Mr. STEVENS).

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senate will be led in prayer this morning by our guest chaplain, Rev. Kenneth Leal Harrington of Hope United Church of Christ in Alexandria, VA.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Gracious and loving God of all people, we give You thanks for the gift of this day, for all the opportunity it holds to know and embrace Your love. You have given us a world filled with diversity so that we might never forget there are varied ways of knowing You. We pray along with the evangelist John, that we might love one another because You have first loved us.

In this season of repentance You offer us freedom and liberation from our mistakes and You set us on a path of new life. For this gift we give You thanks. Teach us to seek You in all times of our life and to always put You first. Help us never forget that You are the God of second chances.

We pray today for our Senators and the awesome task You have given them in this service to our great country.

You have called people throughout the history of our Nation to come to this room and make the hard decisions that will ensure peace and prosperity for all. For those You have called to be here in this moment in time, we ask that You remind them of the need for humility, compassion, and truthfulness so that they might accomplish the task that is before them. Give them the gift of Your wisdom and integrity that will guide them in their discussions, debates, and dialogues. Help them to recall that in all circumstances it is Your Holy Spirit that guides them.

We offer this prayer in Your Name that unites more than it divides. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The PRESIDENT pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

The Senator from Hawaii is recognized.

THANKING THE GUEST CHAPLAIN

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I thank our visiting chaplain, the Rev. Kenneth L. Harrington, for giving the opening prayer this morning, and Chaplain Black who joined me to make this possible.

Rev. Ken Harrington is the popular and beloved, respected and well-credentialed pastor of Hope United Church of Christ in Alexandria, my church away from home. Ken is a graduate of the State University of New York, Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC, and the Seminary of Drew University in New Jersey.

Hope Church has been my church away from home for three decades. It was my good fortune to be invited to the church many years ago by my late and cherished friend, Mahina Bailey, and his dear wife, Linda. Mahina was a Hawaiian born in Hawaii, who spent his adult life here.

Over the years, I have gone to many services at Hope and have always been uplifted by the sermons, and since 2000, by the inspiring sermons delivered by Reverend Harrington. Hope Church is a family-friendly church, dedicated to teaching the values of tolerance and inclusivity.

You can actually see this reflected on the diverse faces of its congregation, the result no doubt of the sincerity of its message of inclusivity. The diversity of its congregation is so much like mine at home. Together with inspirational sermons come seeds for thought to be thought through and digested, and practiced in daily life. Foremost among these thoughts, in my mind, is how we can make this a better world for all of us.

I think this is particularly true for Members of Congress in whom a great trust has been placed by our constituents.

As we go through on a daily basis to achieve the greatest good for the greatest number, and have succeeded for the most part but been frustrated at times on issues so dear and right in our hearts, it is good to open our daily session with a prayer and have the spiritual support and guidance of a divine being, to each from his or her own faith.

To end on a lighter note with a ray of optimism for the passage of bills that are near and dear to our hearts, let me say that with all the seriousness that the mission of a church involves, intertwined in its spiritual voyage are social programs. One of Hope's most popular social events is its annual luau, complete with Hawaiian food and entertainment.

An oversold event every year where congregants and friends thank the Lord for his bounty.

Reverend Harrington, thank you for being here this morning and thank you for your stewardship of Hope United Church of Christ.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader is recognized.
